Coach's Code of Ethics

Coaches should:
- Be treated with respect and openness
- Have access to self-improvement opportunities
- Be matched with a level of coaching appropriate to their level of competence

<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1.</td>
<td>Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every human being. Within the context of the activity, treat everyone equally regardless of sex, disability, ethnic origin or religion.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.</td>
<td>Ensure the athlete's time spent with you is a positive experience. All athletes are deserving of equal attention and opportunities.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.</td>
<td>Treat each athlete as an individual. Respect the talent, developmental stage and goals of each athlete. Help each athlete reach their full potential.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.</td>
<td>Be fair, considerate and honest with athletes. Display high standards in your language, manner, punctuality, preparation and presentation.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.</td>
<td>Be professional and accept responsibility for your actions. Display control, respect, dignity and professionalism to all involved with the sport – this includes opponents, coaches, officials, administrators, the media, parents and spectators. Encourage your athletes to demonstrate the same qualities. Maintain or improve your current ISA CIP accreditation. Seek continual improvement through performance appraisal and ongoing coach education.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.</td>
<td>Make a commitment to providing a quality service to your athletes. Provide a training program which is planned and sequential. Maintain appropriate records.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
7. Operate within the rules and spirit of your sport

- The guidelines of national and international bodies governing your sport should be followed. Please contact your sport for a copy of its rule book, constitution, by-laws, relevant policies, e.g. anti-doping policy, selection procedures, etc.
- Coaches should educate their athletes on drugs in sport issues in consultation with the National Surfing Federation.

8. Any physical contact with athletes should be appropriate to the situation and necessary for the athlete’s skill development*

9. Refrain from any form of personal abuse towards your athletes*

- This includes verbal, physical and emotional abuse.
- Be alert to any forms of abuse directed toward your athletes from other sources while they are in your care.

10. Refrain from any form of harassment towards your athletes*

- This includes sexual and racial harassment, racial vilification and harassment on the grounds of disability.
- You should not only refrain from initiating a relationship with an athlete, but should also discourage any attempt by an athlete to initiate a sexual relationship with you, explaining the ethical basis of your refusal.

11. Provide a safe environment for training and competition

- Ensure equipment and facilities meet safety standards.
- Ensure equipment, rules, training and the environment are appropriate for the age and ability of the athletes.

12. Show concern and caution toward sick and injured athletes

- Provide a modified training program where appropriate.
- Allow further participation in training and competition only when appropriate.
- Encourage athletes to seek medical advice when required.
- Maintain the same interest and support toward sick and injured athletes.

13. Be a positive role model for your sport and athletes
